

Crow will be available in the App Store Thursday, April 12th 2012

April 9th, 2012 -- Sunside is announcing that Crow, a stunning 3D graphical action adventure game for the iPhone, iPad, and iPod Touch will be available Thursday, April 12th in the Apple App Store worldwide as a $4.99 universal application.

Crow is a story-driven action-adventure game. Combining unique exploration, combat, and game mechanics, Crow takes the player on an exciting journey to faraway lands where an ancient battle is unfolding.

Created using Sunside's in-house game platform Radiance™, Crow delivers stunning visuals and immersion in a fully 3D world.

Your choices will forever alter the course of this world. Will you Curse your foes or Spare them and risk the consequences?

Featuring:

- Immersive story line
- Meaningful player choice
- Stunning 3D graphics
- Visceral combat
- Sweeping musical score
- Support for the new iPad Retina Display

What People Are Saying:

"I thoroughly enjoyed the game. It offered a very unique and fun experience unlike any other iOS game I've come across."

"I've never see a game like this. The idea of this game is awesome."

"After booting it up and watching the opening sequence, I knew I was in for a real treat. It was very well done and the music was superb."

"I definitely had a lot of fun playing the game and would highly recommend it."

"Very unique and unlike any other game on the iPhone that I've come across."

"Outstanding. Definitely some of the best I've seen from an iPhone game and they do a great job at bringing the world to life. The backdrops and scenery were just beautiful to look at."

"It was a moody but amazing experience. It was hard to put the game down before beating it."

“I think that Crow is an outstanding title with a good strong personality and really original concept. It looks and plays great, controls are smooth and sound immerses you into the game.”
